

Age of Conan awarded 'Most Improved Game of 2009'

– 'Age of Conan' continues to evolve with new updates and an expansion in 2010 –

Durham, USA – January 5th, 2010 – Funcom is proud to accept the award for 'Most Improved Game of 2009' from world leading MMO website MMORPG.com for the work done to expand and enhance its massively multiplayer online game 'Age of Conan: Hyborian Adventures' since launch. The website chose 'Age of Conan' over titles such as 'World of Warcraft' and 'Lord of the Rings Online', pointing to the additions of brand new content and features as reasons why the game received the prestigious award.

Click here to read more ...

For a full overview of additions and enhancements, please visit the 'Age of Conan' updates website.

Funcom press contacts:

Erling Ellingsen

Director of Communications, Funcom

+47 48 86 71 07

erling@funcom.com

For information about Funcom games
visit

www.darkdaysarecoming.com

www.dreamfall.com

www.anarchy-online.com

www.paradox-entertainment.com

or

www.ageofconan.com

For corporate information please visit www.funcom.com.

